Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations, loans, gifts or pensions to individuals','It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Luminate is Scotland's creative ageing organisation. We work to ensure that older people's creativity can flourish whatever their circumstances, experience, interests and ambitions. We do this by connecting people and organisations, developing and sharing good practice, undertaking research, supporting professional development and championing creativity as we age. We are the leadership organisation for creative ageing in Scotland.

Beneficiaries: 'Older People','No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 4 The organisation is established for charitable purposes only, and in particular, the objects are:
4.1 to advance, promote and encourage the arts with, for and by older people. and 4.2 to advance the arts through promoting the inclusion of older people in the arts whether as artists, audiences or participants. and 4.3 to advance the arts by providing public education on ageing through promoting arts on themes of ageing, and arts that bring the generations together.
