Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

SCIO Constitution

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees are recruited and appointed in accordance to the rules laid out in our constitution. Appointment and removal of Trustees can be done at any time with the approval of the majority of the Board.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The organisation is established for charitable purposes only, and in particular, the objects are advance education and the arts, culture and heritage of the Scottish Borders for general public benefit by:

- Promoting the works of the Borders poet Will H Ogilvie;
- Maintaining the Will H Ogilvie Memorial Cairn and Seat on 'the hill road to Roberton' and any subsequent memorials;
- Ensuring the safe-keeping of any artefacts connected to the poet, in the care of the Trust.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

We will promote the works of the Borders poet Will H Ogilvie (1869-1963) who published 20 volumes of poetry and prose, celebrating the Border landscape, heritage and history. We will keep these works alive by bringing them to the attention of present and future generations. We built the Will H Ogilvie Memorial Cairn and Seat on the Ashkirk to Roberton road and will maintain them and any subsequent memorials. We will act as custodians of and ensure the safekeeping of any artefacts connected to the poet, in the care of the Trust.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

This financial priod was quiet for the trust as we had no big events arranged. The primary focus for the trust this period was to spread the word and works of Will Ogilvie

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We aim to hold a reserve of £3000 for any maintenance required to the Cairn and Memorial Seat.

Details of any deficit

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
