Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of health', 'the saving of lives'

What the charity does: To preserve life through assisting the Scottish Ambulance Service in attending to emergency calls and by raising awareness among the public of the role of the Ambulance Service and Community First Responders. This is done through work with local organisations, being a presence in the local community, and by being on call. The Group also seek to further these aims through the training of Community First Responders in First Aid to a standard deemed to be acceptable by the Scottish Ambulance Service.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The group aim to preserve life through assisting the Scottish Ambulance Service in attending to emergency calls, and by raising awareness to the public of the role of the Ambulance Service and Community First Responders. This is done through work with local organisations, a presence in the local community, and by being on call. The group also seek to further these causes through the training of Community First Responders in First Aid to a standard deemed to be acceptable by the Scottish Ambulance Service. We do this in a common effort to advance the understanding of First Aid and Community First Responders, and to preserve lives in the local community.
