Trustees Report

Introduction

Craigend Community Youth Group is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SC044761) operating in Glasgow. We seek to provide uniform and consistent youth services across the area which meets the needs of our users and are of a high quality and which also promote community participation and inclusion in the decision-making process which affect their lives in Craigend and the surrounding areas.

Governing Document

Craigend Community Youth Group became a SCIO on 25th March 2014 and is governed by our SCIO Constitution. We are run by a management committee who are the Trustees and operated by a team of volunteers.

Aims & Objectives

The overarching aims of the group are;

- a) The advancement of citizenship or community development
- b) The provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities with the object of improving the conditions of the life for persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended.

The following objectives will be delivered to achieve the above aims

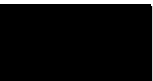

- (a) To support the youth of Craigend
- (b) Facilitate a youth club for the youth of Craigend
- (c) Encourage social inclusion with the youth of Craigend
- (d) Encourage residents to take part in voluntary youth work

Activities

The Youth Club and Table Tennis Club have been closed since March 2020 due to Covid-19. This was due to lockdown and that the venue we use has been closed since March 2020.

Reserves Policy

The charity has a reserves fund of £1,500.00 in place. If a delay in funding should occur, it has been calculated that this is the amount that would be needed to continue running for at least 3 months until funding can be secured.

Independent Examiner's Report

To the Trustees of Craigend Community Youth Group

I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ended March 2022 which are set out on pages 5 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charity trustees consider that the audit exemption requirement of regulation 10 (1)(d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any usual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion of the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- To keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
