Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The pursuit of premises has continued, during this period it was decided to refocus our search areas, and a number of sites and premises were identified across West Lothian, Edinburgh, Falkirk, Stirlingshire and the Lanarkshire regions – to date none were found to be suitable for the charity and we still continue to look into this further.

There was no activities involving the charity during this period and therefore no financial spending to report.
