What the charity does: All Roads Lead to Whithorn is a community development charity in Whithorn. Our mission is to revitalise the town socially, economically and culturally by harnessing local heritage and community effort to create opportunities and improve wellbeing for residents. We have done this by taking on the mothballed New Town Hall, refurbishing it and providing a modern community hub offering meeting spaces, study carrels, events and activities. We provide facilities such as an affordable & accessible gym and a bunkhouse for visitors, walkers and cyclists as a community led tourism venture. We have run successful community programmes such as free lunches, drop ins and events. We promote local economic development and sustainable tourism & work with local businesses charities hosting festivals and markets. We have delivered community led affordable housing to help local families stay in our town and improve their living conditions. We have also developed paths supporting health & wellbeing

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'
