Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

GMA was recognised as a Scottish charity with effect from September 2014.
GMA is administered in accordance with the terms of GMA's constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The Trustees were most recently confirmed in February 2023.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The objectives of the charity are a. The advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation through campaigning and advocating for the rights of minority groups and communities across the world; b. The advancement of education through support for minority groups and communities to access opportunities currently unavailable to them due to their status within their countries; and c. The advancement of health, by providing facilities to redress community inequalities and alleviate suffering caused by trauma/abuse, which is something that minority groups can often be disproportionately affected by

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

a. GMA has continued to campaign for minorities online and has raised awareness for minority issues through events like ceilidhs and concerts, and through report writing.
b. In December 2016, partnership with BooksAbroad SC011359, GMA has shipped school books to Kibera, Kenya which arrived in Spring 2017. GMA also released funds for the purchase of furniture for the new library.
c. Through the Thailand report, GMA has identified areas of need for providing care for refugees in Thailand. Through awareness raising GMA hopes to raise funds to provide facilities.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

2023 has been a quiet year for GMA with our primary source of income being £1,000 from our main benefactor.

We continued to support 5 scholars at our partner school in Pakistan.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity does not hold any reserves at the moment. Apart from the website, GMA has no regular running costs other than for its web-presence, therefore the trustees have not deemed a reserve necessary.

Details of any deficit

N/A (2024 had a surplus of £42)

Donated facilities and services (if any)

N/A
