Activities

Activities: 'It does none of these'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: Our organisation was set up to provide a facility where local people can meet socially for entertainment, to encourage community spirit and integration and seek to prevent social exclusion, particularly for the elderly or lonely. We do this by arranging regular social events such as educational talks, indoor bowling, soup lunches, board games evenings and film nights. There are also music evenings with food, eg Burns Suppers and usual Christmas & New Year festivities.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To provide recreational facilities, and organise recreational activities, with such facilities/activities being made available to members of the public at large with the object of improving their conditions of life. 4.2 To advance the arts, heritage, culture and recreation. 4.3 To advance education and. 4.4 To advance citizenship and/or community development (which may include the promotion of civic responsibility, volunteering, the voluntary sector and/or the effectiveness or efficiency of charities) through the provision of services which contribute to advancing well-being, (primarily the well-being of residents within the area of benefit) including (i) the provision of recreational facilities and. (ii) the development and delivery of arts and cultural activities and events, artistic programmes, and educational projects.

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Charity is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (a SCIO). It was registered in its current form on 1 September 2014. The charity was previously an unincorporated association but changed its legal form to a SCIO. The assets of the unincorporated association were transferred to the SCIO on 10/12/2014. It has a single tier structure and as such the trustees are the members of the charity.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The management committee, which meets regularly, are the charity's trustees. Membership of the management committee is open to all individuals over the age of 16 years who reside within the area of benefit and who support the purposes and have complied with the procedure for application for membership.
Trustees are elected at the annual general meeting.
There must be a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 13 trustees.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

- a) The advancement of education
- b) The advancement of citizenship or community development
- c) The advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science
- d) The provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The regular recreational activities continue to be supported enthusiastically by our residents and visitors from neighbouring communities. Events taking place were monthly Games Nights, Burns Supper, informal musical evenings & Christmas/ New Year social gatherings.
A wide variety of talks and demonstrations took place from local history to making crochet soft toys and Christmas wreaths & decorations. Also, instruction on basic first aid and defibrillator use.
Film Nights are held monthly with classic films being shown. The local history & heritage group continues with their research.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Improvements to the fabric of the building continues. The outer roof was replaced during the year and is now fully insulated and watertight. Grants have been awarded to replace windows and doors over the next financial year. This has transformed the building where we meet and turned it into a warm, safe space, particularly for our more elderly residents. They now have somewhere to socialize, so avoiding feelings of social exclusion. Soup lunches were served during the winter months.

The committee consider one of our main achievements has been the recruitment of several new residents to the association. They have been supportive and shown an interest in joining our committee in the future. We believe it is essential that we have people able and willing to continue with our vision.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Our only source of income is from small local fundraising events and donations from those attending. Grants are required for any major building improvement and maintenance, and we are fortunate to have access to funding from several wind farms located throughout the area. We aim to hold around £8,000 in reserve to cover general running costs, insurances and any other unexpected maintenance costs.

Details of any deficit

Although a deficit is recorded under the restricted funds, there is sufficient monies available to cover this. It has been caused by the time delay when funding is awarded, when it is paid and when it has been accounted for.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

The trustees and other supporters give their time free of charge to carry out maintenance work that does not require qualified tradesmen.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
Basis of independent examiner's statement
Independent examiner's statement

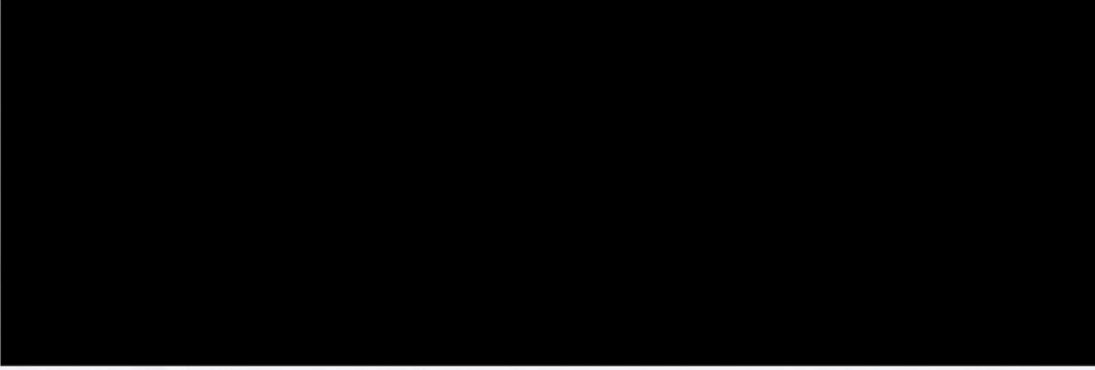

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
