Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education','the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Our objects are: • Nurture the long-standing links between Scotland and Asia and build a shared future. • Engage with creative projects that produce a social, environmental and economic impact, create jobs and enable people to improve their quality of life. • Respect the guiding principles of sustainability, reciprocity and the pursuit of mutual goals that generate lasting benefit. These objects are pursued through the following activities: • Define and create interest in the surviving environmental and built heritage of Scotland in Asia. • Devise ways of making historic sites and buildings relevant in the 21st century to local communities. • Facilitate contacts and sharing of ideas in each country with wider potential spin-off. • Make publicly available documentation and knowledge to encourage future partnerships and pooling of ideas. • Foster and participate in thematic survey initiatives to encourage better understanding of the local and national heritage. • Research

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community','Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: The charity's objects (?Objects') are: (1) to promote, encourage and support heritage conservation projects and initiatives in South and South East Asia in partnership with local organisations. (2) to support the transfer of knowledge, experience and skill in connection with such projects. and (3) to support education and training for skilled workers, craftsmen and women, with a view to increased recognition and status for the skilled trades in South & South East Asia.
