Trustees' Annual Report

Bursaries: We continue to award bursaries and in 2024, we awarded two conference awards (totalling £1,265) and five PG/Independent Bursary Awards (totalling £5,197). Our total disbursement was seven awards amounting to £6,462.

Building upon this, and to support women researchers and other scholars from marginalised groups to submit to the SHR, we launched a new award for early career researchers in the autumn of 2024. The award was made in the winter of 2025, and we took legal advice (costing £2,500+VAT) to ensure that we were acting in accordance with the updated legislation.

Social Media Officer: [REDACTED] a PhD student at Trinity College Dublin, assumed responsibility for our social media in January 2024 and continues in this role. She has been doing a great job publicising our activities.

The trustees monitor feedback and the responses to all of the activities and projects described above. We continue to hold three meetings per year to ensure that we can manage all of our activities and responsibilities.

Financial review

The principal source of income to the charity is from its share of the income from publication of "The Scottish Historical Review". In the year to 31 December 2024 this income was £21,605 (2023 - £16,922).

The trustees aim to utilise the annual income from the journal through the activities described above and are pleased to report that £24,001 (2023 - £17,584) was expended on charitable activities in the year.

Reserves policy

The trustees' policy is to hold reserves to meet normal running costs and known commitments for three to six months and also a balance for any major projects which may arise. At the year end cash reserves amounted to £153,717 (2023 - £154,524). Cash of £85,000 was placed in an interest paying deposit in January 2023 with the interest received annually. All reserves were unrestricted.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements, which they are responsible for preparing, comply with the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the terms of the charity's Constitution. Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Scottish Historical Review Trust

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 5 to 7.

Respective Responsibilities of the Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 ("the 2005 Act") and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) ("the 2006 Regulations"). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine and report on the accounts under section 44(1) (c) of the 2005 Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

This report is made to the trustees, as a body, in accordance with the terms of my engagement. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the trustees for my work or for this report.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination no matter has come to my attention:-

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:-
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
