Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The charity is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The structure of the organisation consists of the charity trustees who are also the organisation's only members and comprise the organisation's Board. The charity must have a minimum of three trustees. An annual general meeting is held in each calendar year, reporting on the immediately preceding financial year of the organisation.

The trustees of the organisation have been recruited due to their experience and expertise in the areas of Christian outreach and working with young women in Scotland. The trustees come from a variety of church backgrounds and traditions.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The objectives of the charity are the advancement of religion by supporting teenage girls to grow in confidence and self-acceptance, developing positive self-esteem; by pastorally supporting young girls through discipleship and mentoring, linking young girls into youth groups and churches across Scotland; and by breaking down social barriers between young people across Scotland.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Creation and maintenance of an entirely digital platform including Instagram, podcasts, YouTube videos and blog as well as the filming and editing of a youth work video course called "Identity Sessions".

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	2024 has been another year of change and growth for Diamonds Scotland. As a small organisation, we recognise that change is part of our journey, and this year has brought its fair share as we continue to shape the future of Diamonds. With Charis settling into her role as Director, much of this year has focused on strengthening our foundations. Charis has been reviewing and updating our policies and procedures to ensure that Diamonds is well-placed to flourish in the years ahead. We are so grateful for the steady leadership and care she has brought to the role. At the beginning of 2025, we also saw a significant transition in our trustee team as [REDACTED] stepped down as Chair after four wonderful years of faithful service. In February, we welcomed [REDACTED] into the role and are excited about the fresh perspective and encouragement she brings to the team. Amidst these changes, our podcast, social media presence, and participation in events have continued to connect and encourage women across Scotland. We are thankful for everyone who contributes to the work of Diamonds—through prayer, volunteering, and financial support—and for the sense of community that continues to grow even through seasons of transition.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Diamonds Scotland
Registered Charity Number: SC045349
Principal Address: 2/1 1724 Great Western Road, Glasgow G13 2TQ

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 January 2025 which are set out on pages 5 to 7.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
