Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: We own and maintain a variety of boats and encourage members of the community, of all ages, to use them. We organise courses of instruction in sailing. We run a motorhome aire and use the profits from this to pay our expenses and to make charitable donations to local groups. We also allow local groups to use our clubhouse for their meetings.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To provide facilities and instruction for those who wish to learn skills associated with boat handling. To pass on traditional boat building skills in order to preserve them for future generations. To facilitate the acquisition of boat building, boat maintenance and boat handling skills to members of the community who wish to acquire them. To promote and encourage fellowship and friendship within the community.

Annual Report 2025-26

The St Ayles skiff continues to be used when weather and tide suit. The people who have been out on it have enjoyed the gentle exercise and the lovely views. It is of course available for any crews who wish more vigorous exercise. Alternate Sundays appears to be the most favourable time for its use, but it can be used at other times by arrangement. It now has a dragon's head secured to the stemhead to scare off opposing crews.

Sailing for youngsters was offered again last summer, to a mixed reaction. Four sessions were offered on June evenings but youngsters only turned up for one.

The club paid for pupils at Rosehearty School to have a day with instructors from Aberdeenshire Sailing Trust and they appeared to enjoy it but there was no official feedback and the promised opportunity to speak to a school assembly and publicise further sessions during the school holidays did not materialise.

The summer holiday sessions did take place and most of the places were filled but by a relatively small number of people coming to multiple sessions rather than having a larger number of participants.

The club is willing to finance sessions again this summer but we need to get some sense of the likely uptake before committing ourselves.

The motorhome aire continues to go from strength to strength. There are many repeat customers as the visitors enjoy the setting and the friendly welcome. They also provide valued custom for local businesses.

The clubhouse now sports a tremendous array of solar panels and battery storage. This will make a large reduction to our electricity bills. Barry has done a power of work into securing a grant to make this possible and liaising with the contractor who did the installation.

The Red Kirk has also had repairs done to the roof in order to keep it watertight.

Ian Gatt has also been busy and there will be two of his special seats down by the beach for use by campers and other passers by.

Profits from the motorhome aire have been used to help the community. Donations were made to the Community Council in order to buy flowers and compost for village flower beds, to buy weedkiller and a sprayer in order to tidy up some of the village pavements and to provide an information board about local hero Hugh Mercer. That board is in the South West corner of the Square, next to the Mason's Lodge.

The club paid for and distributed Christmas hampers to all the old age pensioners in the village and paid for replacement batteries and pads for the defibrillators. We also made a contribution to the Charity Air Ambulance.

Finally! We have a lot of good boats. We would like to see them being used this summer.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [~~other than that disclosed on the attached page*~~]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
