Section C Notes to the Accounts

C1 Nature and purpose of funds (may be stated on analysis of funds worksheets)

The Covid-19 crisis has had a profound effect on our society, and overnight turned people's lives upside down. Throughout the emergency millions of people have been advised to stay at home, and many others have chosen to do so. Many people are also experiencing, or at greater risk of, financial hardship. The Corra Foundation (Winter and Household hardship Funds) and Youth Scotland grants were distributed to households in cash to enable them purchase households items, food and groceries.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Community Asset Project is registered Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organization with registration number SC045758. The organization was founded in 2015 to provide a range of projects in communities which promote social inclusion, cohesion, diversity, and regeneration. Our project community are members of the PALOPs, the Paisés Africanos de Língua Oficial Portuguesa (or African Countries with Portuguese as Official Language) of the Cape Verdean, Angolan and Mozambican people resident in Glasgow. Our organization was specifically created to help the vulnerable members of the community to help them deal with the impact of poverty and to help shape local policies. We are an anti-poverty organisation and that communities we work with suffers from a range of social, economic and health problems, unemployment is high, poverty is common, housing conditions are relatively poor, associated ill health is apparent, educational performance and access to further education is low, drug misuses are fuelling criminality and community safety is a significant issue.

We deliver projects covering four strands:

a) Stronger Communities – projects designed to bring people together and build links within communities.

b) All Well & Good – promoting wellbeing, raising aspirations and self-esteem to help people to have more control over their lives and live independently

c) Youth and Diversity- bringing together young people and BAME groups, especially African & Caribbean groups.

d) You Live and Learn – practical training in the arts, often linked to other themes, such as enterprise skills to show participants how to run a financially successful and sustainable arts project.

Our project activities include Gardening, Financial Inclusion, Heritage & Digital Projects, Mini-Food banks, and social enterprise project.

We have supported over 309 young people and 194 adults mainly from the target community indicated.
