APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

In 2023, the RCCG House of Praise Dundee focused on reaching out to the immediate community through the charity's programs and activities.

The church workforce in conjunction with RENEWED FAITH team from Northern Ireland organised a musical outreach to lift up the spirit of the community in February and another complimentary session during the Easter period.

In the summer, the church organised a robust 3-days children club event for age 5 to 16 filled with exciting activities.

In addition to the summer events, the church also held two musical busking sessions at the Dundee City Centre to lift up the city spirit.

Along with the festivities of Christmas, the church organised Carols both in Dundee and in the neighbouring town of Arbroath.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees consider that the charity needs to hold bank balance equivalent to at least one month's average expenditure to ensure the on-going delivery of its charitable objectives.

Details of any deficit

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
