Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of public participation in sport'

What the charity does: The purpose of the charity is written in 1) above - i cannot improve on that statement. We run a table tennis league and various other competitions and tournaments for members of clubs located in Dundee, Angus and parts of Fife. We run drop-in recreational table tennis sessions for various categories of players (youngsters, seniors, girls-only, as well as general practice sessions) at various venues within the region. We provide table tennis coaching, often but not always aimed at young players, at various venues within the region, and we support after-school clubs where possible subject to coach and volunteer availability.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The Association is constituted to promote, develop and control the sport of table tennis within Dundee and District and environs.
