Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation'

What the charity does: The main focus of the charity is to promote peace and understanding across the globe by engaging in practical and educational exchange programmes with individuals from abroad. The main activities include social services agency visits, with cultural and social activities with the aim to provide an overview of social services and the way of life in Scotland. The programmes include opportunities for the visiting delegates to share information about their work experiences, social work methods in their own countries and to learn from each other thus building on all experiences with a view to enhancing their own practice. These exchanges have proved valuable for all involved in the development of the programmes, agencies visited and for the receiving branch members.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 4.1 The advancement of Education: To provide for and facilitate the professional development, education and training of social workers and members of related professions through the exchange of professional knowledge and experience in the field of social care services throughout the world. 4.2 The advancement of citizenship, heritage and culture: To promote world peace and understanding through the cultural exchange and experience of host family living that is included as an integral part of every CIF international professional exchange programme. 4.3 The advancement of conflict resolution and reconciliation: To promote peaceful community relations, racial harmony, religious tolerance and the resolution of family conflict, through the sharing of professional experience and skills in social and community services generated by CIF international professional exchange programmes.

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees CIF Scotland (UK) SCIO

Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation SC0466215

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 28 February 2023, which are set out on the accompanying pages.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the Account Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 1 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- Which gives the reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

Have not been met, or

- To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
