Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Clause 4 of the Constitution:
The organisation's purposes are:

- 4.1 To advance both religion and education via teaching events; and
- 4.2 To offer Christian teaching and nourishment to all who like to think about their faith through teaching that integrates thought and emotion, head and heart, spirituality and theology.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The principal activity of The Abbey Summer School during the period was the planning and organisation of an educational event held in Edinburgh:

The Abbey Summer School held on 16-18 June 2022 (planning for event during the period).

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Due to a number of issues, it has not been possible to hold an Abbey summer school as planned in summer 2024. Plans are underway to recruit new trustees and plan new Abbey summer school events into 2025-2026.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The surplus/deficit available to The Abbey Summer School after each annual event is added to existing reserves to provide both a cushion for years where The Abbey Summer School may make a slight loss, and to have available funds to make necessary expenditure in advance of educational events in the following year.

Details of any deficit

The charity is currently in surplus.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

None.
