Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

B - the advancement of education
I - the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended.
The organisation's purposes are:
To provide recreational facilities and organise activities that will increase skills and improve well-being, quality of life and opportunities for people in Jedburgh and the surrounding area through camaraderie, inclusion and improved self-esteem.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

To provides facilities, equipment and a suitable space to enable members of the public to learn new skills including woodworking, DIY, arts, handicrafts and to pursue new hobbies and interests. All this is aimed at bringing people together for social interaction and inclusion, increasing motivation and self-esteem.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Our membership has again increased this year together with an output of better quality projects that we can sell or commissions we've undertaken has benefitted our funds and helped to keep us sustainable.

We now encourage the whole of the membership to work on their own projects and help them by giving assistance as opposed to teaching or mentoring.

We have continued to work collaboratively within our local community including:

- participating in the local Rotary's Santa Grotto.
- entering a Jed Shed tree into the Jedburgh Xmas Tree Festival and were awarded third best prize out of 25 in the public vote (proceeds from the festival go back into community projects).
- raising £300 from the sale of Christmas tree Memory Stars (hung on the town's Christmas tree in the market square) with the money going towards next year's town light displays.
- In the spring, we were involved with repainting & cleaning all the Jedburgh high street box planters.
- supporting the town's bookshop's 'Making Homes for Nature' event with 15 bird houses & 15 bug hotels.
- Providing the local Royal Voluntary Services dementia group with 10 memory box frames for dementia patients in Jedburgh.

We have had a bumper year for planter commissions and have sold planters to numerous Jedburgh shops.

Our website continues to be updated with recent projects and provides a key communication tool folk offering tool donations & project requests.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We aim to have a reserve of 1 year's regular expenditure – approximately £2500.00.

Details of any deficit

none

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Members gave their time and expertise to make items to raise funds for the charity. There have been many generous donations of different types of materials and equipment throughout this year.

We acknowledge the support of Jedburgh Community Trust, who continue to provide us with very affordable premises for rent.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
