Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the promotion of religious or racial harmony', 'the promotion of equality and diversity'

What the charity does: Glasgow is Scotland's biggest and most religiously diverse city. Living in a religiously diverse society means that ongoing efforts must be made to foster mutual understanding and respect between people who believe and practice differently from each other. We aim to promote religious harmony, equality, and diversity. and to advance education through: - increasing mutual understanding, harmony, and equality between people from different religious traditions and none. - by providing opportunities for mutual-learning, friendship-building, dialogue, & cooperation. - supporting and collaborating with other organisations, groups, and individuals whose activities foster positive interfaith engagement increasing awareness. We believe that interfaith is for everyone and that includes non-religious people as well as religious people. We want to see a Glasgow – and a world – where everyone feels they belong.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'People with a particular ethnic or racial origin', 'Other defined groups', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community', 'Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: 4 The organisation is established for charitable purposes only, and in particular, the promotion of religious harmony, equality, and diversity. and the advancement of education through: 4.1 Increasing mutual understanding, harmony, and equality between people from different religious traditions and none by providing opportunities for mutual-learning, friendship-building, dialogue, and cooperation 4.2 Supporting and collaborating with other organisations, groups, and individuals whose activities foster positive interfaith engagement 4.3 Increasing awareness, understanding, and appreciation of religious diversity and interfaith
