Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of public participation in sport'

What the charity does: Our men's, ladies and juniors teams train and play matches on weekly bases during the season. Throughout the years we run various events both sporting and social/culture/traditional events to promote the overall health and wellbeing of participants. As well as empowering and building the capacity of the minority formal/informal Irish community organisations, participation in the sport of Gaelic Football in the Glasgow area by both sexes at various age levels up to adult level. In addition, we work with local schools and in the community, and support charities to raise money.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: To advance the arts, heritage, culture or science and advance public participation in sport by celebrating Irish culture through providing an opportunity for participation in the sport of Gaelic Football. To empower and build the capacity of the minority formal and informal Irish community organisation, participation in the sport of Gaelic Football, in the greater Glasgow area by both sexes at various age levels up to adult level.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] <ol style="list-style-type: none"> which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or <ol style="list-style-type: none"> to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science

The advancement of public participation in sport, opened to all age groups residents in the West of Scotland who have an interest in Gaelic Sport and Culture.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Our men's, ladies and juniors teams train and play matches on weekly bases during the season. Throughout the years we run various events both sporting and social/culture/traditional events to promote the overall health and wellbeing of participants.

As well as empowering and building the capacity of the minority formal/informal Irish community organisations, participation in the sport of Gaelic Football in the Glasgow area by both sexes at various age levels up to adult level. In addition, we work with local schools and in the community, and support charities to raise money.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We have run a number of key culture events throughout the year that were open to the public as well as our members keeping in line with covid guidelines.

We have assisted in helping other local charities with events.

As well as running a number of fund-raising events such as, race night, cultural, family fun days, quiz nights,

We have been running training sessions twice a week for men's, ladies and jnr members which have all been open to the public throughout the year. Furthermore, our underage section has travelled to Ireland to play matches.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

As a club we set a reserve of £16,000, we are gradually trying to build this each year. The reserve will allow us to cover any short fall in funds to ensure we can continue to function. This is reviewed every year depending on the previous year's expenditure.
