The Reid-Timoney Charitable Foundation

Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 31 July 2025

The trustees present their report along with the financial arrangements for the year ended 31 July 2025.

Constitution

The Charity is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation ('SCIO'). It was registered in its current legal form on 7 July 2016. This SCIO is a single tier structure and as such the trustees are members of the charity.

Appointment of trustees

The charity's trustees can only be trustees if they are full members of the SCIO. The minimum number of Charity trustees is three and shall include the Chairman of the SCIO. The appointment of new trustees is reserved to the trustees in office. New trustees are provided with opportunities to receive training in relation to their duties and responsibilities as charity trustees.

Objectives and activities

The deed of trust provides for wide-reaching charitable objects, affording the charity trustees the power and flexibility to apply the income and capital of the trust fund, by awarding grants, for the benefit of charitable objects and purposes, in any part of the world. Grants are awarded to charitable organisations in accordance with the principles set out below.

The trust's primary focus is on: -

- The advancement of health;
- The relief of those in need by reason of age, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

Achievements and performance

This is the seventh period of activity of The Reid-Timoney Charitable Foundation. During the year, the Foundation's focus was primarily on providing financial support through grant giving to identified causes in line with the Foundation's principles and objectives. The Trustees continue to review and assess additional causes that may benefit from the Foundation's future financial support.

Financial review

The financial statements for the year are set out in pages 5 to 9. The statement of financial activities on page 5 reflects net deficit for the year of £148,444 (2024: net surplus of £39,156). The net deficit is mainly due to grants of £187,500 being paid during the year. In spite of this net deficit, the charity remains in a strong financial position.

Key management personnel

The trustees comprise the key management personnel of the entity. No trustees received any remuneration during the period.

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the trust to maintain unrestricted reserves at a level sufficient to cover donations and general running costs. Reserves as at 31 July 2025 included cash of £1,690,564 and bank interest receivable of £135.

for the Year Ended 31 July 2025

Plans for future period

The charity seeks to produce the best financial return within an acceptable level of risk and continues to adopt an investment objective to generate an acceptable return on these investments over the medium to long term, after expenses. The measure of inflation most relevant to the charity's expenditure is the UK consumer prices index. This investment objective should allow the charity to maintain over the medium to long term the real value of the assets, whilst funding the trustees' desired level of annual expenditure.

Going concern

The Trustees consider that there are no material uncertainties about the SCIO's ability to continue as a going concern.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustee's annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in Scotland requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the applicable Charities SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charity Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the trustees on 23 March 2026 and signed on their behalf by:

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of
The Reid-Timoney Charitable Foundation

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 July 2025 set out on pages five to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustee's annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in Scotland requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the applicable Charities SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charity Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of
The Reid-Timoney Charitable Foundation

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 July 2024 set out on pages five to ten.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Grants and donations are only included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the general income recognition criteria are met.

6. Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings, they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.
