Largs Community Resilience Team (LCRT) is constituted in terms of the Rules of the Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO). The Group is a registered Scottish Charity – No. SC047060

The purpose of Largs Community Resilience Team is to save lives. In doing so, we aim to create a resilient North Ayrshire and surrounding area by ensuring that LCRT is able to respond swiftly and proportionately to an emergency in the community as part of an integrated emergency response.

We ensure compliance with the Civil Contingencies Act 2004.

We ensure that LCRT can respond to an emergency in the community through the creating of emergency plans, supplements with training, exercises and plan maintenance with associated operational teams.

We ensure the provision/dissemination of routine warnings received from various agencies including, but not limited to, the Met Office and Environmental Agencies

Trustees are recruited & appointed in accordance with the Constitution Rules (24.0).

Activities & Achievements

During the past year Largs Community Resilience Team have recruited several new members but have also had some members step down. We have a pool of 35 volunteers from which around half are most active supporting events locally, the Largs Viking Festival being the main event during the year.

The team now have the capability to provide First Aid and we have been called upon to deliver this at a few local events. (Viking Festival, RNLi Duck Race, Yule tide night)

The team have continued to support local pharmacies and vulnerable people with delivery of medication and shopping, although to a lesser extent than previous years as many residents have passed away or moved into residential care.

Overall, the Largs Community Resilience Team are recognised as an essential resource within the local area and residents appreciate having a resource they can call on if required.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2025 which are set out on pages 3 to 5.

Respective responsibilities of trustees & examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities & Trustees Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- To keep accounting records in accordance with s.44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act & Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met.

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
