Governing Document

The foundation is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) and its purpose and administration are set out in the constitution.

Charitable Purposes - Why did we decide to start the Shannon Hughes Foundation?

The foundation was started in memory of [REDACTED] beautiful daughter [REDACTED], who passed away on 20th April 2016 after a three year fight against Ewing's Sarcoma which is a rare form of childhood cancer.

[REDACTED] was a very loving girl and always thought about others before herself. She wanted to give back to the charities that supported her throughout her journey, particularly when she was fit and feeling better. The charities that supported us over the last few years have been simply amazing and helped us enormously. They provided financial support, moral support and perhaps, most importantly, gave us opportunities as a family to create beautiful and priceless memories with our precious daughter. As her parents, we have vowed to keep her legacy going. With the advice and support of her amazing followers, we decided the best way to honour our remarkable daughter was to launch a foundation in her name.

Be like [REDACTED], keep smiling!

[REDACTED]'s Vision and our Aims

Through ongoing fundraising events and continued support from [REDACTED]'s followers, our aim is to give something back to all the wonderful charities that supported us. It's important they continue to provide their services to all children and families battling childhood cancer. To do so, they rely on donations and support.

With funding from the Shannon Hughes Foundation, we would like to help families going through childhood cancer by offering much needed financial assistance. A recent survey estimated a family's outgoings increase by £500 per month if their child is attending hospital for the treatment of cancer. Many parents have to take leave from work to be with their child. Financial worries should not be a burden when your child is fighting for their life.

Another vital area we are keen to support are the organisations who specialise in the research and development of cures for childhood cancer. We must continue to help fund these efforts and hope that one day, a cure will be discovered. Our children should continue to receive the best possible treatments and support available.

Activities and Achievements

Goals achieved:

Slow year for charity donations and no set fundraisers organised

£7,705 raised in year 8.

Expenditure was £4976 and this was used on:

Donations to other local charities like, sick kids hospital and support to individual families fighting children's cancer.

Funding to support individual families

Cash at bank ended at £30,831

Reserves Policy

The trustees believe that the foundation should maintain a level of reserves sufficient to continue the charitable activities and to meet any other ongoing running costs for at least six months.

Continuation – Year 9

In year 9 we will continue to maintain the profile of the charity within the local community, continue to fund raise and donate money to families in a similar position that the Hughes family found themselves in during [REDACTED]'s illness.
