Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Theatre Gu Leòr is Scotland's leading Gaelic theatre company. We support, develop and create new, contemporary theatre in Gaelic, working with artists and communities throughout Scotland. Since its establishment by Muireann Kelly in 2014, the company has brought numerous productions to audiences across Scotland and beyond, including radio drama series, children's theatre projects, and large-scale plays on some of the most esteemed stages in the country. Our work is ambitious and imaginative, and driven by stories as diverse as the Gaelic community.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: (a) The advancement of the arts, through creating and enabling unforgettable theatrical experiences, and building a strong and ambitious Gaelic theatre sector. (b) The advancement of education, through informal learning and development opportunities for theatre makers, youth theatre members and audiences. (c) The advancement of Gaelic, promoting linguistic inclusion and diversity in Scotland.
