Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of public participation in sport'

What the charity does: Provide facilities for men, woman, boys and girls to learn to play rugby, participate in games, keep fit and learn. This includes organised games through the SRU and also fitness/touch rugby sessions. We also have an outreach programme working with local schools where we deliver training sessions. Our clubhouse is also used by other community groups on a no cost basis. In addition to the and management committee, we have a large volunteer base of coaches and catering etc.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation is established to provide coaching and the provision of recreational facilities to promote the advancement of public participation in the amateur sport of Rugby in Deeside. This will include, although not restricted to, (i) organisation of teams, training and games at the organisation's facilities at Woodend, Crathes, Banchory. (ii) participation in the Scottish Rugby Union (SRU) League structures and cup competitions. and (iii) developing its involvement in the 'Active Schools' programme and providing coaching staff within local schools.
