Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The constitutional form of the charity is that of a SCIO – a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees are recruited at a fixed point in the year. There is an open recruitment process and this is advertised through global networks. Prospective trustees are invited to join a trustee meeting with no obligation. Following this, members are able to appoint in line with the constitution.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The organisations purposes are: (1) The promotion of equality and diversity in sport, through sport and by sport. (2) The advancement of human rights, using the platforms and opportunities of major and mega sports events. (3) The advancement of citizenship and global community development. (4) The advancement of public participation in sport.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Pride House International is the guiding body intended to support and oversee the delivery of Pride Houses by organisations in their local contexts during large-scale international sporting events such as the Olympics, the Commonwealth Games, the Panam/Parapanam Games, and the World Cup. A Pride House is intended to promote the cause of equality in and by sport. This is achieved, in part, through the creation of Pride Houses at large-scale international sporting events such as the Olympics, the Commonwealth Games, the Panam/Parapanam Games, and the World Cup.

APPENDIX 1*Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The charity has continued to operate in international stewardship and solidarity with Pride House organisers on the following activities.

- Maintaining the Pride House International website
- Working with partners supporting delivery of Pride Houses
- Development work
- Working with international movements

Maintaining the website:

Documenting the narratives, evaluation and reports from previous iterations of Pride Houses. Encouraging organisers to provide us with documentation in the form of social media posts and final reports on activities, which are then archived on the Pride House International website.

Delivery and support:

Work to support Pride House organisers and local activists in each of the organising countries where Pride Houses took place this year. These were:

Men's European Football Championship 2024
Olympic & Paralympic Games Paris France 2024

Development work:

Work to support Pride House organisers and local activists in each of the organising countries where Pride Houses are being planned. These were:

Winter Olympics Milan and Cortina 2026
FIFA Men's World Cup North America 2026
FIFA Women's World Cup Brazil 2027
Olympic & Paralympic Games Los Angeles, USA 2028

We also collaborated this year as a member of the LGBTIQ+ Human Rights in Sport Coalition.

Working with international movements:

We dedicate significant amounts of our time to working with international community groups and activists which sometimes develop into Pride House projects, and at other times don't. For example In the current period a lot of time has been dedicated to working with partners across North America in anticipation of the next Men's World Cup in 2026.

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	Unrestricted reserves can be spent on the furtherance of our charitable purpose, and decision making on this is at the discretion of our Trustees.  The charity has £1695 in reserves at year ending March 2024.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
