Respective responsibilities of trustee and examiner
 The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement
 My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement
 In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the Accounts – for the Year Ended 31 December, 2025

Basis of Accounting:

These Accounts have been prepared on the Receipts and Payments basis in accordance with the Charities & Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended)

Nature and Purpose of funds:

Unrestricted funds are those that may be used at the discretions of the Trustees in furtherance of the objects of the Charity. The Trustees maintain a single Unrestricted Fund for the day-to-day running of the Association.

Restricted funds may only be used for specific purposes. Restrictions arise when funds are raised for specific purposes. A grant of £3,000 for year 1 and a further £3,000 for years 2 and 3 will be received in the relevant financial year from the Old Luce Community Council Windfarm Fund. These monies to be restricted towards maintenance and running costs as stipulated by Foundation Scotland who allocate the yearly grant on behalf of the OLCC Windfarm Fund.

Glen of Luce Community Association Secretary's Report January 2025 to December 2025

The hall continues to be used, as in previous years, by the Western Galloway Beekeepers Association, Wigtownshire Sports Council, Riding Club, Easi Obics Classes, SWI' SAC and the Young Farmers.

Maintenance costs were increased a little due to a rodent/boiler issue. This was quickly identified and dealt with.

Following feedback last year, the constitution was reviewed and it was agreed no amendments were required. The process for the induction of new trustees was also discussed, and it was agreed that we would ensure any new trustees would be given a copy of the constitution and of the guidance and good practice for charity trustees.

This is all the more relevant as throughout the year we have had three resignations, for various reasons, and sadly the death of Alan Ramsey, a former chairman and long standing committee member.
