Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

We offer refreshments and seating at a café style tables which is the ideal setting for drinking tea and chatting or reading a book from our library. In our craft section we have knitting, crochet, cross-stitch, cardmaking, hand sewing and machine sewing.

Our workshop has been equipped to offer woodworking and we hope to offer metalworking.

We have secured IT equipment (laptops and tablets) which have been Used to introduce members to computing.

We have had talks from Dementia awareness and Cosy Kingdom (Energy advice)

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

One of our main achievements is the continued increase in people attending. Which has meant increasing our opening sessions to 3 days a week. The interaction with people attending has shown the value they place on attendance and the friendships they have formed and look forward to each session. This has confirmed that people need the company and conversation, which provide.

Our members, in conjunction with Fife Council and Kennoway Community Council, have worked hard to maintain and clear areas, fill and water planters and hanging baskets, throughout the town, competing in the Beautiful Scotland Awards.

We sell hand made crafts from the Shed, and support other charities by attending their events throughout the year.

We continue to support Kennoway Xmas lights, supply knit wear to local maternity hospitals. We have an excellent relationship with local businesses.

We have a family history expert, as a member who helps people trace family tree, he has extensive local knowledge and gives guided tours.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
