Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations, loans, gifts or pensions to individuals', 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of religion', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Our charity is set up to undertake religious activities, which includes sharing the good news of the Gospel by proclamation and demonstration (good works). We partner with other missions organisations throughout the world who have similar objectives. We also provide pastoral care for our members from the cradle to the grave. In order to helpfully care for others and reach out to others, we run ancillary services to facilitate this. We aim to be a blessing to our community and our TAR would provide substantive evidence of this.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: Purposes and Powers of the Church 2.1. The purposes for which the Church was established as a legal entity are 2.1.1. the advancement of the Christian religion in Scotland and the world for the public benefit, through the maintenance in one or more locations in Central Scotland of a body of Christian believers founded on the tradition of biblical orthodoxy which maintains that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the supreme authority and rule in matters of faith and life, and engaged in serving God through worship, discipling, pastoral care and outreach. and 2.1.2. the relief of sickness and financial hardship and the promotion and preservation of good health for the public benefit, by the provision of funds, goods or services of any kind. 2.1.3. the promotion of education for the public benefit, particularly in the understanding of the Christian religion by making grants to support institutions or colleges engaged in training students for work or ministry and awarding bursaries to students undertaking such training and offering grants to support those engaged in Bible teaching throughout the world and those engaged in training others to undertake Bible teaching. 2.1.4. such other charitable purposes as are consistent with and further the attainment of the above objects
