Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

APPENDIX 3

Disclosure section

Only complete if the examiner needs to highlight material problems.

Give here brief details of any items that the examiner wishes to disclose

I am aware that the Trustees intend to apply to dissolve the charity in the very near future and to pass any remaining funds to another charity with similar aims and ethos. I can see no impediment to them following this course of action.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Apart from the first Charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustee must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the SCIO.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The advancement of the Christian faith in accordance with the Basis of Faith and the Doctrinal Statements, primarily, but not exclusively, by procuring the entry of individuals into vocational Christian ministry through the provision of advice, education and training to individuals and churches.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The provision of information and guidance for men and women considering and/or training for vocational Christian ministry: through website information, conferences and individual mentoring.
The provision of information and guidance to church leaders seeking to provide church-based training to members to their churches, through website information, conferences and individual mentoring.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The provision of information pertaining to training and routes into vocational Christian ministry on our Website. (<https://thepathwaysnetwork.uk/>)

Trustees were also available to give one to one guidance throughout the year.

Due to the diminishing activity being undertaken at this time, the Trustees have agreed to seek the dissolution of the SCIO and with OSCR's approval donate the small residue funds to a charity with similar aims to Pathways. The Dissolution will be applied in the coming year.

Financial review
