STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

THE CAIRNGORM CLUB was formed on 23 June 1887, the day after Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee, by six hill-walkers from Aberdeen. It is the oldest Mountaineering Club in Scotland.

The Club became a Scottish Charity on 11 July 2017.

The most recent version of the Constitution of the Club was adopted on 10 November 2021. It states that:

"The Management of the Club shall be vested in a Committee, which shall consist of the office-bearers and nine members."

The Constitution further states that:

"The office-bearers of the Club shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, Communications Secretary, Huts Custodian, Day Meets Secretary, Climbing Activities Secretary, Weekend Meets Secretary, and Social Activities Secretary. Any two of these offices may be held by the same person. Only Ordinary Members shall be eligible for election as office-bearers."

and that the Charity Trustees for the Club shall be:

"The President, Secretary and Treasurer or, if the posts of Secretary and Treasurer are held by the same person, the President, senior Vice-President and Secretary."

OBJECTIVES

The Constitution states:

"The objects and purposes of the Club shall be the advancement of public participation in the sport of mountaineering and the preservation of the environment with special reference to the Cairngorm Mountains, by:

- a. promoting competence, safety, knowledge and responsibility of attitude amongst persons who engage in mountaineering;
- b. offering opportunities for such persons to engage in that pursuit in company with others;
- c. procuring and imparting scientific and other information concerning mountains;
- d. keeping under review rights of access to Scottish mountains;
- e. issuing such publications as may be considered advantageous;
- f. assisting other non-profit-making organisations whose purposes facilitate participation in or enjoyment of mountaineering."

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The accounts show a deficit for the period of £1546 with a current account balance at the year-end of £3176. The value of savings accounts at the year-end was £99,000.

RESERVES STATEMENT

The designated fund for maintenance of Muir Cottage was increased by 3% Electrical repairs were paid from the fund. The remaining general funds are considered adequate for several years of usual club expenditure, even with a substantial fall in income. Any surplus funds are used to further the charity's objects and purposes.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER

Ben Binnie acted as independent examiner for the period.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE CHARITY TRUSTEES OF THE CAIRNGORM CLUB

Scottish Charity Number SC 047567

I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ended 30 September 2025 which are set out above.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirements of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations do not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the 2005 Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with the Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep proper accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
- have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Benjamin Binnie, CA,
