The Kintyre Way: Our 2025 Review (AGM October 2025)

The Kintyre Way continues to go from strength to strength, with major progress in leadership, safety standards and community engagement, alongside the successful delivery of the August WalkFest 2025. Recognised 'walk leader' training has now been completed across all eight sections of the Kintyre Way, including Gigha.

A growing programme of regular walks is firmly established, with "wee walks" running in Tarbert, West Kintyre and Campbeltown, as well as popular monthly walks promoted in advance. These initiatives are helping to make walking on the Kintyre Way safe, accessible, and enjoyable for a wide range of participants. A comprehensive framework of policies and procedures is also in place, covering areas such as risk assessment, health and safety, safeguarding, equal opportunities, environmental responsibility and data protection. In addition, Public and Employers' Liability insurance has been secured, providing reassurance for participants, volunteers and walk leaders.

Clear guidance has been developed for key roles, including the Walking Co-ordinator and a social media guide now supports consistent and positive promotion of the route. This highlights the Kintyre Way's rich natural environment, cultural heritage, music and the vital role of local supporters and communities.

A highlight of the year was the August WalkFest 2025, which ran throughout the month and covered every section of the route, including Gigha. Organised by the Friends of the Kintyre Way in collaboration with local communities, the festival featured themed walks involving local organisations along the length of the peninsula.

The festival celebrated Kintyre's walking culture, landscapes, heritage, and hospitality, offering local residents and visitors an accessible way to experience the entire route.

The closing event at the end of August brought the festival to a celebratory close, with participants describing it as "busy, buzzing, and good craic," and praising the strong sense of community, creativity, and environmental awareness.

Looking ahead to our 20th anniversary in 2026, plans are already being explored to build on this success, and to explore new opportunities for the future of the route, including the possibility of a new route to the coast.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention ~~other than that disclosed on the attached page*~~

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
