Charitable purposes

The Clinton Pringle Project was set up in 2017 in memory of a three-year-old Glasgow boy. Clinton Pringle was killed after being run over on a shared-space area by a woman driving a van while he entering a park on the island of Jersey in June 2016, she later admitted using a handheld mobile phone moments before running him over. He survived for a few days before succumbing to catastrophic injuries.

The Project's main purpose is the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, for children and young people with the object of improving the conditions of life. The relief of those in need by reason of age, ill health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

We attempt to identify parents or families who have suffered the death of an otherwise healthy child (or children) suddenly and work with these families to create physical memorials which primarily serve a practical or educational use to members of the community to which their child(ren) belonged. For example these could be items of playground equipment or a learning garden. We are also able to, if appropriate, to provide short holiday breaks to parents and families although that is something we've yet to extend to.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The charity has been dormant as the Trustees have not been able to commit sufficient time to its work over the last year due to personal issues, including ill-health of family members.

Financial review

Reference and administration details

Names of all other charity trustees during the period, if any, (for example, those who resigned part way through the financial period)

Name	Dates acted if not for whole year

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Project is governed by its constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The trustees remained constant throughout the financial year.

The board may at any time appoint any person to be a charity trustee - by way of a resolution passed by majority vote at a board meeting

Objectives and activities

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Our initial aim was to hold at least £10,000 in reserves, which would allow us to begin work on any future project at relatively short notice.

The amount we have is well in excess of that at the moment, but we have not been actively fundraising in the last 12 months.

Details of any deficit

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] <ol style="list-style-type: none"> which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or <ol style="list-style-type: none"> to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
