STRUCTURE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Structure and Governing Document

Save a Life for Scotland ("SALFS") was awarded charitable status on 5th October 2017 in the form of a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation with the charity number SC047795. SALFS is governed by a Constitution which clearly sets out its purposes and the manner in which the Charity is to be administered by the Trustees

Trustees

The Trustees who served during the year are noted on page 3. The Trustees are responsible for the governance, supervision and defining the strategy and objectives of SALFS. The Trustees also have principal responsibility for finance, fundraising, policies and procedures, risk management and contractual obligations. The Trustees meet from time to time as required in order to fulfil their duties.

The Constitution permits the appointment of up to 9 Trustees and requires a minimum of 3 Trustees. At the year-end, 4 Trustees held office.

The appointment of new Trustees is the responsibility of the existing Trustees

Risk Management

As the charity has not carried out any activities yet, the Trustees have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks which SALFS faces and establish adequate systems and controls are in place to mitigate such risks. Matters relating to risk management will be addressed at future meetings of the Trustees.

Aims

The charitable purposes of SALFS are set out in the Constitution and comprise the saving of lives by promoting the use of and training in CPR and other bystander actions

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE FOR THE PERIOD ENDED 31 OCTOBER 2023

There has been no activity since the charity was formed. The Trustees are actively discussing the plan for the future of the SCIO.

Financial Review

There have been no financial transactions during the period and the Charity held no funds at the 31 October 2023

Reserves Policy

The Trustees have therefore not yet set a Reserves policy.

Date

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Save a Life for Scotland

I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ended 31 October 2023 which are set out on page 5.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charities trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than disclosed below)

1. which gives me reasonable causes to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met. or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
