MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 OCTOBER 2024

The management committee, who are also trustees, present the financial statements for the year ended 31 October 2024.

Structure, governance and management

The Orchestra was registered on 9 October 2017 as The Ness Sinfonia and subsequently changed its name to Inverness Symphony Orchestra on 22nd January 2024 in recognition of its continued growth. Inverness Symphony Orchestra is a recognised charity, Charity Number SC047808. The charity is governed by its constitution and managed by its Management Committee. The committee members who served during the year were as follows:

Recruitment and appointment of trustees

All of the trustees are appointed or re-appointed by the members at our annual general meeting.

Governing document

Inverness Symphony Orchestra is a charitable incorporated association and the purposes and administration arrangements are set out in our constitution.

Responsibilities of the trustees

The trustees are responsible for the strategic direction, governance and for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity. They also manage the day to day running of the charity. To facilitate the effectiveness of the charity, some trustees hold a role which contributes to operations including finance, administration and programme related activities.

The accounts are prepared in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 as amended.

It is also the trustee's responsibility to ensure the assets of the charity are safeguarded, taking preventative measures for the detection of irregularities and fraud.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify, assess, act on and review the risk to which the charity is exposed and ensure appropriate systems are in place to provide reasonable assurances to mitigate exposure to major risks.

Charitable purposes

The principal object of the charity as recorded in our constitution is to maintain, improve and advance the education of the public in the art of the science of music, in particular, orchestral music, in (but not exclusively) the Highlands of Scotland.

Review of Activities

Activities continued with term time rehearsals and successful, well attended concerts at the conclusion of the Autumn, Spring and Summer terms. Membership numbers continue to grow.

New developments included coordinating and running spin off ensembles of orchestra members collaborating with other musical groups in the Inverness area. These well attended events are a valuable addition to the charitable activities of the orchestra and further raise awareness in the running of successful music making opportunities in the local community.

Plans for the future

Events and opportunities will continue to be developed to keep raising the awareness of classical music within the local community.

Financial review

As shown in the receipts and payments statement, the charity made a surplus of £6,678 for the year (2023 - Surplus £5,585). At 31 October 2024, the balance of funds held in the bank account was £17,198 (2023 - £10,520).

Reserves

The Management Committee are of the opinion that formally benchmarking a specific target level of reserves is not wholly appropriate for the charity and its activities. In the opinion of the Management Committee, the assets of the charity are however available and adequate to fulfil its objects.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 October 2024 which comprise a statement of receipts and payments, statement of balances and the related notes.

Use of my report

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with Section 44 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005. My examination has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for my examination, for the report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- a) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
- 1 to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations as amended, and
 - 2 to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts regulations as amended have not been met, or

- b) to which in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
