Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: The objects of the charity are to provide Continuing Care to young people giving them a more graduated transition out of care reducing the risk of multiple simultaneous disruptions occurring in their lives while maintaining supportive relationships. It achieves these objectives through the operation and maintenance of a 2 bedded Cottage, situated in the grounds of The Good Shepherd Centre Bishopton, to support the continuum of care for young people aged 16-21 years old.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The charitable purposes of the Company are the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage (including relief given by the provision of accommodation or care) by: providing bespoke continuing care packages for young people aged 16 to 21 who are preparing for community living.
