Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations, loans, gifts or pensions to individuals', 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of religion', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: CHRIST'S AMBASSADORS Evangelistic Ministries International is a Christian charity committed to transforming lives—Spirit, Soul, and Body—through the message of Jesus Christ. We engage in evangelism, Bible teaching, discipleship, and prayer, while also meeting practical needs through charitable outreach and community support. Our activities include gospel missions, leadership training, literature distribution, and humanitarian assistance to vulnerable individuals and families. We operate both in the UK and internationally to bring lasting impact to lives and communities through the power of faith and compassionate action.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 4(1) The charity's objects ('Objects') are specifically restricted to the following: (a) to advance the Christian faith (in accordance with the Articles of Faith appearing in the Memorandum of Association) in the United Kingdom and the world as the directors of the Charity may from time to time think fit. (b) to advance the production and distribution of tracts and other evangelistic or edifying materials/literatures in accordance with Christian principles in United Kingdom, and the world, by such means as the directors of the Charity may consider appropriate. (c) to advance education, evangelistic training and conferences in accordance with Christian principles by such means as the directors of the Charity may consider appropriate including (but not limited to) establishing and operating any evangelistic training and conferences establishment or establishments in the United Kingdom and the world as the trustees may from time to time think fit. (d) to conduct or support or advance Christian missions' ministry through revival meetings or prayer meetings, or crusade meetings in accordance with Christian principles in the United Kingdom, and the world as the directors of the Charity may from time to time think fit. This may include: I. giving to support mission/church development work and relief of the poor. and II. overseas mission trips. (e) to support persons who are in conditions of need or hardship or who are minor or orphan or aged or widowed or sick or foreigners and to relieve through prayers or other social means the distress caused thereby in the United Kingdom and the world as the directors of the Charity may from time to time think fit. (f) to support the provision of community facilities, so long as they are all regarded as relating to the main work of the Charity. I. These will normally involve some combination of worship, Christian teaching/evangelism and prayer with some of the worship meetings also possibly involving children's work/Sunday school.
