Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: We are set up as a body of Christian believers who come together to worship God, study the Bible and for prayer. We meet together regularly to encourage one another and give assistance to one another spiritually and physically as and when anyone is in need. We also desire to reach our community with love and concern and meet needs that may be presented to us as and when we are able to do so.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 4. For the advancement of religion as we ... a. Devote ourselves to God through our worship and to each other through our love and service b. Develop as we disciple and build up the Church of Jesus Christ through the teaching of the word and the ministry of the Spirit. c. Declare to men and women everywhere the gospel message from the Word of God that they must repent of their sins, believe and confess Jesus Christ as Lord.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
