Accounts

2024 Chairman's report

People

The committee has retained its current members and we don't see any change of personnel for the foreseeable future.

Jetty & Moorings

The Jetty has had a quiet year in terms of visitors and accordingly visitor income. We believe this has been due to very poor weather in the summer months. We are looking forward to seeing the completed accounts which will give the LLJA an accurate view on the revenue.

Donations

I'm delighted to say that we've been able to distribute funds to worthy local causes. This includes £400 to the local school, £400 towards a local music event and £400 towards a day out to Oban for our senior citizens. In addition donations were made to the Poppy Appeal and the local Macmillan Cancer Research coffee morning.

Loch Long Events

In September we organised the Arrochar 10K for the 7th time. This event goes from strength to strength, participant numbers were 200 this year. Brilliantly led by [REDACTED] and supported again by the committee and community delivered another outstanding event. Initial numbers suggest a profit of around £3500.

The Loch Long Jetty Association Crab fishing Championship took place in June. The event run in conjunction with the Olive Branch (A local sandwich bar), was a lot of fun and a great success. 980 crabs were caught by the 30 entries and a small profit was made.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
