Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: Scottish Rural Action (SRA) works with members and partners to: - build a grassroots-led rural movement in Scotland that connects rural communities with each other and with decision-makers for the purpose of sharing learning and shaping policy. - provide secretariat for platforms of the rural movement including the Scottish Rural & Islands Parliament (SRIP) and the Scottish Rural & Islands Youth Parliament (SRIYP). - collaborate with seldom-heard groups to ensure these platforms are inclusive and accessible. - build the capacity of sectoral and geographic networks, upskilling organisations and individuals to enable them to participate in the rural movement more effectively. - collectively develop a place based and asset-based understanding of rural Scotland's economy, society and culture that shapes local practice and national policy. - connect Scotland's rural movement with UK, EU and international partners.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The company supports and promotes the advancement of citizenship and community development, including rural regeneration and civic responsibility. To this end, the company carries out activities: To encourage and actively support the development of an inclusive and sustainable Scottish rural movement that is rooted in Scotland's rural communities and empowers and connects them. To support the organisation of a Scottish Rural Parliament that meets with the purpose of giving a stronger, more coherent voice to Scotland's rural communities and enabling them to engage more effectively with government at all levels. To support and promote the development of a Scottish rural movement and Parliament.
