Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The RSCDS Youth Branch is governed by our constitution which is available to view on our website at <https://rscds-youth.org/our-constitution/>.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The appointments of [REDACTED] as Treasurer and [REDACTED] as IT Officer were made by members of the Youth Branch in the Annual General Meeting in April 2024. [REDACTED] was co-opted as Ordinary Member at the same time as the AGM.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The constitutional aims of RSCDS Youth Branch are:

- To encourage youth membership.
- To develop a communication vehicle specific to age group.
- To be worldwide, flexible and not location-based.
- To increase the influence of Youth within the society.
- To give young dancers an increased sense of identity and community.
- To be represented at AGM by delegates.
- To identify potential members for the Youth Services Committee (YSC) and other society committees.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The branch's Annual General Meeting (AGM) was held online from 22nd to 28th April 2024, using Google Forms in order to allow the maximum number of members to participate and cast their vote. 16 members participated in the AGM.

The Youth Branch sends newsletters to our members and supporters by email. The newsletter includes information on upcoming dancing events around the world and articles written by members, speaking about their experiences at recent events they have attended.

We have remained active on the Youth Branch's Facebook and Instagram pages. These continue to be important methods of communication with our members and with dancers outside of the branch who are interested in what we do. We share branch news, upcoming events, and reminders to our members to check their emails for our newsletters and to renew their membership for the following year. We have also continued to maintain our Discord server, which we created last year, to provide a space for members to have social interaction with each other from across the world, share events happening near them and encourage each other to attend.

In October 2024, we held our annual Youth Weekend Away in Basel, Switzerland. We held classes for our youth members during the day on Saturday. On Saturday evening we held a ball which was open to all ages. On Sunday morning, participants were taken on a city tour before the event came to an end.

We also held our second North American Youth Weekend Away. Our event in Boston, USA followed the same format as previous weekend events.

Our travel grant scheme was opened again in July 2024 and February 2025. We received 6 total applications and shared £450 between successful applicants, enabling them to attend future RSCDS events, such as our Youth Weekend Away and Summer School.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Membership has remained steady. Youth Branch members continue to be spread globally and the Youth Branch is proud to represent the voice of young dancers from such a wide range of locations.

At the AGM held online between 22nd and 28th April 2024, the appointments of [REDACTED] as Treasurer and [REDACTED] as IT Officer were made by our members. The Minutes from the 2023 AGM were published on the Google Form and were approved with no comments made.

In October 2024, we had another successful Weekend Away in Europe, this time in Basel, Switzerland. The event was well-attended, and featured teachers [REDACTED] and musicians [REDACTED] on piano and [REDACTED] on fiddle.

The dancers stayed at a popular youth hostel near the dancing venue and the famous Basler Münster cathedral overlooking the Rhine River. The weekend was a flurry of exciting dancing with attendees from the UK, Switzerland, France, Germany, Italy, and even the USA, among other places. The European Weekends Away remain our core and most popular events, and we are grateful to the local dancers who assisted us in organising the weekend.

Also in October 2024, we also had our second Weekend Away in North America in the historic city of Boston, building on last year's success in Philadelphia. We saw high attendance from dancers from a variety of experience levels. We collaborated closely with RSCDS Boston and the Boston SDCEA throughout the weekend. One of the oldest branches of the RSCDS in North America, we were drawn to Boston in part for its strong musical scene.

Bandleader and pianist [REDACTED] led fellow musicians [REDACTED], two-time US National Scottish Fiddle Champion; [REDACTED], 2020

US National Scottish Fiddle Champion and 2016 Perth All Scotland Fiddle Championship winner; [REDACTED], on cello. [REDACTED] also joined the evening Ball with a grand march on his bagpipes.

The weekend began with a welcome party at a festive pub in the Back Bay neighborhood, complete with live music, creating space for our young dancers to socialize as a cohort. On Saturday, we had Youth Weekend classes at a local dance studio taught by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] playing solo in each class. The evening ball in Cambridge was a great hit, with at least 90 dancers attending.

Sunday featured a city tour through Boston's most historic areas, including the neighborhoods of Beacon Hill and the North End. Dancers learned about the city's rich history, architecture, and culture from [REDACTED], who led them to landmarks like the Boston Common, Old State House, Granary Burial Ground, and Faneuil Hall.

The Youth Branch was represented at the RSCDS AGM in November 2024.

We had further rounds of Travel Grants in July 2024 and February 2025. We have plans in place to try to increase the funding we are able to offer, to be able to help more dancers attend events that they would otherwise not be able to.

Our cooperation with the International Branch remains strong. This cooperation is important and beneficial for both branches due to us both being non-regional communities. Our existing no-cost reciprocal membership scheme allows a primary member of one branch to obtain free branch-only membership of the other. This collaboration has proven successful for increasing membership of both organizations.

The Youth Branch social media pages and newsletters continue to be particularly important for our communication with members. Between April 2024 and March 2025, 4 newsletters were published.

We have remained active on the RSCDS Youth Branch Facebook and Instagram pages. These are important methods of communication for both our members and for other dancers outside our branch who are interested in what we do. Our Facebook page has over 1000 followers and our Instagram page has over 400 followers. Both pages receive healthy levels of engagement. Our social media pages enable us to share photos with our members from our Weekends Away and other events with a youth presence. They can also share photos with us and tag us in their stories, promoting Scottish dancing within their own social media circles.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
