Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education','the advancement of health'

What the charity does: The purpose of the Neurological Alliance of Scotland (NAoS) is to raise awareness and understanding of all matters concerning neurological conditions and to promote the welfare of people affected by neurological conditions, their families and carers in Scotland. It is the intention of NAOs to improve the experiences of people living with neurological conditions by promoting access to high-quality treatment, care, and encouraging opportunities for prevention, early intervention and research.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people','Older People','People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: The purposes of the Alliance shall be to advance the education of the public in all matters concerning neurological disorders and to promote the welfare of persons affected by neurological conditions and their carers so that their conditions of life may be improved by carrying out research and investigation into preventative procedures and treatments. In furtherance thereof but not otherwise the Alliance shall seek:

- To inform and influence policy that affects the lives of people with neurological conditions.
- To raise awareness and disseminate information about neurological conditions and their impact on individuals and society.
- To promote improvements in care for people with neurological conditions.
- To research, collect and disseminate information on all matters affecting the stated objectives. The results of any such research shall be made available to the public.
