To help our contributors develop creative writing and reporting skills 4.2 The advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science by including regular articles on the natural history and history of the area (including genealogy) and publicising talks, lectures and workshops in the area. 4.3 The advancement of citizenship or community development within the North West Lochaber area through the publication of local reports, including sports and schools, news articles and other forms of information, and by advertising and supporting local businesses.
