Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The charity is constituted as a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation. The structure of the organisation consists of a Board, who have the power to appoint trustees, make changes to the constitution, and monitor the financial position of the organisation.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The board may at any time appoint any person to be a charity trustee – by way of a resolution passed by majority vote at a board meeting. Prior to each board meeting, each of the board members will have the chance to raise any concerns they may have about another board member.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The organisation's purpose is to improve the lives of people facing hardships by providing financial and/or emotional support or support services.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Due to the recent pandemic and lockdown, the charity has not had much activity over this financial year. This is due to the fact that, as we are a small organisation with limited funding, we did not feel we have the resources in place to assure the safety of both our volunteers and our recipients. Since lockdown began easing this year we have been reorganising and planning how to rebuild our funds and services. We are currently planning our first fundraiser post-lockdown and have some new projects lined up for once these funds have been secured.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During the first half of this financial period, the charity was still waiting on the easing of lockdown restrictions to restart our activities. Once lockdown eased we began reorganising and planning. This was a difficult task and achievement in itself with our limited funds and resources. We have started planning multiple projects and services to be launched once we have secured the appropriate funding. We are also in the planning stages of our first post-lockdown fundraiser, which would give us the base funds to re-launch our services.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity currently does not hold any reserves due to our low funds. However, we aim to be getting higher funding in the future and the trustees will collectively determine the appropriate level of reserves, which will be detailed in a reserves policy, in due course.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner Basis of independent examiner's statement Independent examiner's statement	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention. My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts. In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention - which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or - to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached. I have recommended that the organisation open a bank account to reduce their reliance on cash

Section C Notes to the Accounts

C1 Nature and purpose of funds (may be stated on analysis of funds worksheets)

The charity did not have any funds enter or leave the organisation this year, as a large portion of the year was spent still in lockdown and the later portion of the year was used to begin reorganising and planning for rebuilding our funds and services.
