APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We are immensely grateful to our supporters for their faithfulness and generosity over the years, without which Lifeway Project would not have been able to "make a difference one life at a time".

Through the continued financial and prayer support of our contributors, we have been able to continue our sponsorship projects in Africa and it's encouraging to see how some of these children are able to progress with their education. The most vulnerable primary and secondary school children, mostly in Uganda and Zimbabwe, continue to receive assistance. Whilst grateful for our contributors generosity, we are often overwhelmed by requests to provide even more support to new children, often orphans. We know that through God's providence and timing such requests will be met by our faithful, ever-loving and compassionate Heavenly Father who cares even for those Christ calls "the least of these", that is, the most disadvantaged.

Our project director continues to offer support to Cumbernauld Baptist Church and in lieu of their appreciation for the services, Lifeway Project has continued to receive financial support from the church.

He has also taken services at Clarkston Baptist Church, where he's in membership, and we continue to receive financial assistance from their missions' budget.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention other than that disclosed on the attached page:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

Disclosure section

Give here brief details of any items that the examiner wishes to disclose

The trustees have failed to maintain accounting records in a timely manner for the accounting period ending June 2025. These are updated via an automated bank transfer link which failed to operate for the period from October 2024 to August 2025.

As a result, the charity trustees did not have accurate financial information available to them throughout this period to assist them in effective management of the financial affairs of the charity.

The failure of the automated bank transfer link has been investigated and the missing transactions have been included in the charity accounting records.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We are immensely grateful to our supporters for their faithfulness and generosity over the years, without which Lifeway Project would not have been able to "make a difference one life at a time".

We have been able to continue our sponsorship projects in Africa, and it's encouraging to see how some of these children are able to progress with their education, we have seen some transitioning from primary to secondary school. It's worth noting in this report, that one of our students in Zimbabwe achieved the highest results in GCSE Ordinary (O) Level, in the entire school and is now the school's head boy, working towards his GCSE Advance (A) Level.

We are also able to report that one of our Theological college student graduated, having successfully completed his training as prescribed by Cape Town Baptist Seminary and has now relocated back to his home country Uganda.

Our project director continues to offer support to Cumbernauld Baptist Church and in lieu of their appreciation for the services, Lifeway Project has continued to receive financial support from the church.

He has also taken services at Clarkston Baptist Church, where he's in membership, and we continue to receive financial assistance from their missions' budget.

It has not currently been possible to restart community activities in the Kennished area. See the "other optional information" section for further detailed explanation.

Other optional information

We finally managed to reestablish contact with the new management team of the Kennished Community Hall to discuss the possibility of relaunching our community lunch club and they in principle agreed to our request.

Unfortunately, rental rates were increased to levels that are unsustainable and unaffordable at current budget, this has sadly halted our plans to restart the lunch club.

We are at present negotiating and seeking additional funding before we can commit.

At a Lifeway Project Members Meeting held on 22nd March 2023, a decision was unanimously passed, in accordance with Clause 93 of the Constitution, for the removal of the limitation of trustees (Clause 21), to serve for a maximum of two consecutive terms.

The Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator was informed of these amendments and on their request a Certificate Extract of the said meeting and the Amended Constitution was provided for their information.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

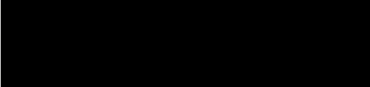

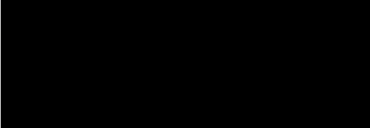

Basis of independent examiner's statement My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention ~~other than that disclosed on the attached page*~~

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
