TRUSTEES REPORT 2024/25

Trustees serving during 2024/25

Why was your charity set up?

Our church in Edinburgh has a long-standing relationship with the Golgota Bible School in Talmaciu and many members have volunteered in camps, medical missions and bible teaching. In 2019, we recognised that the resource needs of the Mission were greater than the few supporters could afford, and potential donors needed the credibility and safeguards of a registered charity.

Additionally, access to Gift Aid allowed local costs of running the charity to be defrayed.

Who does your charity help?

The Bible college and mission is run by a skeleton staff and a number of volunteers. Our SCIO supports the running costs of the mission as well as the numerous outreaches to deprived communities including Roma villages.

What was done? (outputs)

In 2024, camps were attended by over 2000 children and families.

Hundreds of students attended training courses.

Many villages were visited leading to medical care being offered to hundreds of needy people.

What was achieved? (outcomes)

Church leaders were encouraged, trained, equipped and sent back to their local churches.

Needy people gained health advice, pain relief, spectacles and the use of medical equipment to enhance their lives.

Hundreds of children and their families received a holiday in the mountains which would otherwise have been unaffordable.

What difference was made? (impact)

Churches encouraged and equipped

Healthier lives

Holidays for those who could otherwise not access one.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention ~~(other than that disclosed on the attached page*)~~

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
