Objectives and Activities

Charitable purposes

To advance citizenship of community development by (i) encouraging the involvement and promotion of community organisations and events through the use of the online community radio station and (ii) encouraging volunteering at all levels of the organisation by all interested members of our community.

To advance education by offering training and the opportunity to learn about all the roles involved in the running of the community online radio station and broadcasting.

Activities

The principal activity of the charity is to provide a locally focussed online community radio station attracting members and advertisers providing a service to the local community and wider area.

Achievements and Performance

Progress during the past year on the broadcasting front has been painfully slow. The severe restrictions forced upon us by the Covid pandemic has prevented any training of new personnel because of the 'close up and personal' working environment that is the studio, so we have continued to rely on material submitted to us by contributors. However, we have seen a small but effective increase in our live output thanks mainly to the input of a couple of new and our existing crew members, the former not needing any formal training because of previous broadcasting experience elsewhere.

There has been some progress on the new premises front with us being successful in our application for grants to be used to fund the conversion of the Portacabin into a fully functioning studio. However, the Covid situation has also seriously affected the start of the external works as our new landlords are wanting to connect the 'services' to the unit before we can occupy them. Funding this and identifying a suitable contractor to carry out this work in view of the current environment is seemingly proving to be problematic for them. At time of writing, a contractor has now been found. Hopefully, this work will be completed soon and we will be able to gain access ourselves so that our work can commence on the internal alterations.

We continue to struggle to attract advertisers, again because of the Covid situation, Many of the businesses that indicated a willingness to come on board when we started to broadcast have gone out of business and those that remain are understandably reluctant to advertise at all given the current situation.

Our Outside Broadcasts and P.A. work has also stopped as there have been no events held at all in the region that warranted our attendance. However, we continue to be very optimistic for the future. Spirits remain high despite the many obstacles thrown at us.

My sincere thanks to my fellow Trustees and the loyalty of the Crew on both sides of the mic. for their continued hard work and input.

Financial review

Total receipts for the year were £23,184 (2020: £4,396). Payments in the year amounted to £9,007 (2020: £3,918). This resulted in net receipts for the period of £14,177 (2020: £478). Funds as at 30 April 2021 were £14,655, of which £5,600 is restricted and £9,055 is unrestricted. All funds are represented by deposits held in the SCIO's bank account.

Trustee remuneration and expenses

The trustees did not receive any remuneration or expenses during the period under review.

Reserves

In this early period of operation, the trustees have sought funding to establish the studio and meet the monthly running costs. They anticipate holding reserves equal to 3 months ongoing expenditure will be required going forward. At the 30 April 2021, the reserves were at a level to sustain the charity and allow it to develop further. The trustees will continue to seek funding and monitor the running costs and reserves balance as the SCIO becomes more established.

Major risks facing the charity

The charity is dependent on membership subscriptions, advertising revenue and grants. Without these income streams the charity will find it difficult to continue. However, the station can scale back its operations in line with income available if necessary.

COVID-19 is a risk to the charity in so far as it is hindering the ability to attract and train volunteers at this time. Conversely, the online radio station itself is a great comfort to those in social isolation. The Trustees consider volunteer recruitment, and training in broadcasting will improve as the current restrictions are lifted.

Plans for future period

The station continues to build in these early years of operation, attracting volunteers, members and advertisers and training broadcasters. It aims to increase the portion of live broadcasts as more presenters come on board. The charity is planning further promotional work to raise the profile of the station in the local area and further afield and looks for local community events to support and attend as and when restrictions allow. The main focus of 21/22 is the move to the new studio.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Sescot Radio

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 30 April 2021, which are set out on pages 5 and 6 and the related notes on pages 7 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006(as amended) ("the 2006 Regulations"). The charity Trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Regulations
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulationshave not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
