Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Our charitable purposes are to advance education, heritage and culture by: promoting and encouraging an interest in the study of the archaeology, history, antiquities, folklore and natural history particularly concerning the Breadalbane and Upper Tay area of Perthshire. preserving, conserving, understanding and interpreting the historical and cultural heritage of the area. providing a community resource through the collection classification and conservation of items of local historical interest. promoting and advancing heritage in the area. We do this through: holding monthly meetings during the winter months on topics related to our interest areas. organising outings to local places of interest and longer residential trips. offering assistance with family history research. supporting local history projects in the local school. maintaining an archive available to our members and to members of the public. supporting other local groups with heritage-related projects.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'
