Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 4 The organisation's purposes are: 4.1 The advancement of arts through the provision of an annual music festival in the village of Killin for the local community to enjoy or take part in- Killin Music Festival aims to provide the community of Killin and the wider public with access to high quality arts and culture through the provision of a music festival and other cultural activity throughout the year. The village of Killin is a remote area of the Central Highlands and as such, access to high quality music is not always easy. By bringing artists of an excellent standard into the community, we intend to advance their access and enjoyment. 4.2 The advancement of education through working with local schools to learn about traditional and contemporary music and culture- Through workshops with the local Primary School we intend to advance musical education and introduce pupils to music of various genres, but primarily traditional and the culture and heritage which surrounds it. This will be through a local primary school choir which will develop musicianship, performance skills and confidence. We also intend to develop instrumental classes for local children. We see this as vital in the face of reduced provision through local authorities and rising costs of private tuition.

Structure, governance, and management

Killin Music Festival is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation governed by its constitution.

The SCIO was established on 9th July 2019 to replace a constituted voluntary group which was dissolved with all assets and liabilities passing to the SCIO on 9th July 2019.

This did not introduce any material changes to the objectives, activities, membership or governance regime of the charity, and the accounts are presented under the principles of merger accounting as one ongoing entity.

The charity trustee board may at any time appoint any person to be a trustee - by way of a resolution passed by majority vote at a board meeting. There are a maximum of eleven trustees, and a minimum of three.

The board work with members to organise various events and activities to advance our objectives.

Objectives and activities

The organisation's purposes are the advancement of arts through the provision of an annual music festival in the village of Killin. Killin Music Festival aims to provide the community of Killin and the wider public with access to high quality arts and culture through the provision of a music festival and other cultural activity throughout the year. We also focus on the advancement of education through working with local schools to learn about traditional and contemporary music and culture.

Achievements and performance

Killin Music Fest 2023 was our second highest event ever for ticket sales, and made a significant contribution to the local economy, generating an overall net additional economic impact of approximately £194,000. This remarkable achievement not only helps drive local businesses but also helps safeguard up to three vital tourism-related jobs in the area.

We secured £15,500 of funding through Creative Scotland National Lottery Open Fund for Organisations, which focused on building our Sunday “Celtic Kin” programme of events which showcased Celtic cultures; their languages, performative arts and music from both Scotland and abroad. This support was very much appreciated and helped build upon our outstanding lineup for the 2023 festival.

St Rochs Ceilidh Band delivered a special performance and Q&A session in our local school to around 100 school children. Seeing them all up and dancing was energising for our team that were helping to organise. Some school children were very emotional after the event, telling teachers that they had never had the opportunity to experience such a session and energy.

Aberfeldy Gaelic Choir performed on our main stage, and in their down time arranged a visit to the local retirement home to meet Elizabeth McDiarmid, one of the co-founders of their choir group, which was established over 50 years ago. The choir held a special, moving performance for Elizabeth and the residents in the home before taking to the main stage later that night. Elizabeth sadly passed away in the year following the performance.

Overall funding support enabled us to present a full Sunday schedule of events designed to celebrate Celtic cultures: languages, performative arts and music. [REDACTED] Unity Irish Dance, [REDACTED] and Aberfeldy Gaelic Choir took us on a journey, and delivered a memorable closing evening.

Looking forward we are planning on not running our main festival in 2024. This is partly to protect the organisation while costs are spiralling, and ticket sales are trending towards mainly purchases within the last few weeks before the event. This seems to be a dangerous trend throughout the industry. We will also use this dormant year to look at funding streams, and enhancing the logistics of the event, so that when we next run, we will be able to take that next step forward.

Financial review

The accounts for this report period are attached and form part of this report.

No remuneration was paid to any office bearer or committee member (the trustees). Trust email and web hosting services were supplied by [REDACTED] DigDes.net at a discounted rate.

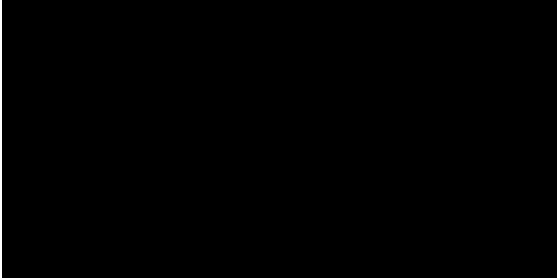

We received income from the National Lottery Open Fund for Organisations as shown in the report.

We aim to build a healthy financial reserve by optimising event budgets, to help improve our long-term financial stability.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
