Oxgangs Neighbourhood Centre

Report of the Trustees for the year ended 31 March 2025

The Trustees are pleased to present their report together with the financial statements of the Charity for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Status of Charity and Governing Document

The Charity is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) (SC049520). It was registered in its current legal form on 6 August 2019. The charity was previously an Unincorporated Association (SC024157) but changed its legal form to a SCIO. The assets of the unincorporated association were transferred to the SCIO on 1 January 2020. It has a single tier structure and as such the Trustees are the members of the charity.

Aims and affiliation

The Charity is managed wholly by the trustees who share the responsibilities of managing the daily activities. The Charity's stated objective is to provide a safe space where people are welcomed and where they feel included and valued. It will seek to provide activities that respond to social needs and create opportunity for relationship, friendship and personal growth.

Trustees and Office Bearers

Management of the Charity remains with the trustees. The Trustees who served during the year are as set out below:

The day to day management of the operational work of the Charity is undertaken through the work of the Centre Manager, [REDACTED] with the help of part time and sessional staff as well as a core group of volunteers.

Appointment of Trustees

Existing trustees provide suitable names for new trustees and following assessment of this list of name(s) individuals are invited to become trustees. Trustees serve from year to year with no maximum term and are elected annually at the annual general meeting.

Induction and training of new trustees

The Charity undertakes training for trustees to ensure awareness and understanding of:

- The responsibility of being a trustee
- The organisational structure of the Charity
- The financial position of the Charity
- The future plans and objectives of the Charity

Achievements and performance

The year has been a challenging year for Oxgangs Neighbourhood Centre, as per other community centres, but being a resilient community, we came together to hold our usual events such as the Halloween, Christmas party and jazz event. Dinners were also held including with an Italian theme and a Polish theme. These were well attended and allowed us to highlight the possibilities of our café provision and abilities of our chef and café assistant. We also took part in the Edinburgh 900, which was a city wide project.

It was great for the Centre to be able to fulfil its obligations and commitment to the local community. We look forward to next year where we intend to put on more events, including a Burns Supper, a French theme night and other activities aimed at the diverse local community,

We are lucky to have such a dedicated team of staff and volunteers under the management of [REDACTED]

We continue to support the community by collecting surplus food from various supermarkets in the Oxgangs area and again by the generosity of our volunteers.

Achievements and performance (cont'd)

Finally, our financial position remains positive and we have a clear focus on self-generated income through fundraising events, hall lets and where possible through grants funding. We are seeing an uptake in parties for weddings and birthdays amongst the local community and further afield.

We stand by our founding principle of being 'A Centre For All'.

Objectives for 2025/26

The strategic plan for the next financial year includes the following:

To continue raising the profile of the Centre among local residents and partner organisations by:

- Continuing to hold community events and explore and develop further partnerships.

To develop effective opportunities for vulnerable people to achieve their fullest potential in life by:

- Continually developing our projects, groups and services on offer to the community, through talking and listening to the wider community.
- Continuing to work with local schools, community projects, housing association, children and social work and other council departments and all our community partners, in order to offer the best co-production of services for the community.
- Offering ongoing support and training for all Centre volunteers and trainees, ensuring they have the best possible volunteering experience while they are at the Centre.

To significantly increase the numbers of people using the Centre and the range of activities on offer by:

- Continuing to increase participation in our groups, projects and services, by both local people and those in neighbouring areas, through ensuring quality of service and affordability of the service on offer, some of which will be free to use at the point.
- Continuing to develop our community café facility, through ensuring consistent quality, variety and affordable meals and a great place to come.
- Extending our partnership with the Edinburgh International Festival and the Jazz and Blues Festival.

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees for the year ended 31 March 2025

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 March 2025 which are set out on pages 5 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The Charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended)

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
